WOMEN'S SOCCER WORLD CUP SHINES LIGHT ON EQUAL PAY

News

Jul 22, 2019

As the newly crowned world champion U.S. Women's National Soccer Team members received their winners' medals, chants of "equal pay!" reverberated through the stadium. While equal pay issues generally don't garner worldwide attention, increasing attention is being shown to these issues across the United States. In an article published in ColoradoBiz, Sue Schaecher outlines Colorado's latest equal pay legislation – SB19-085 – and how it impacts employers when it takes effect in January 2021. In her article, Schaecher concludes, "Take steps to keep your organization in compliance, such as eliminating pay history questions from your hiring process, training managers, conducting an internal pay audit to uncover any disparities and addressing any disparities found."
