

Five Cases to Watch at the NLRB

News

7.29.19

The NLRB has had a busy year, issuing several precedent-shifting ruling so far in 2019. In its roundup of the remaining cases before the NLRB, Law360 examines the issues at stake for employers. When asked about a pending case that may decide the future of confidentiality mandates in arbitration, Steve Bernstein, co-chair of the firm's Labor Relations practice said, "It's an important decision because employers have been crying out for certainty and clarity in this area for over a decade now, and there was hope that we finally obtained that certainty as employers by virtue of the Epic Systems case."
