

Fisher Phillips Named One of the Busiest Employment Litigation Firms in Southeast

News

8.20.19

Lex Machina released its “Employment Litigation in the Southeast Report,” naming Fisher Phillips one of the busiest employment litigation firms in Florida, Georgia and Texas. Law.com covered the report, highlighting an uptick in litigation in the region with more than 6,000 cases filed each year for the past 10 years, and notes that “case resolutions and findings overwhelmingly favor employers.”

To read the full report, visit Law.com (subscription required).

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.