GULFPORT, LA (November 13, 2019) – Fisher Phillips, a national labor and employment law firm representing employers, announces that Kelly A. McCall has been named an associate in the firm’s Gulfport office.

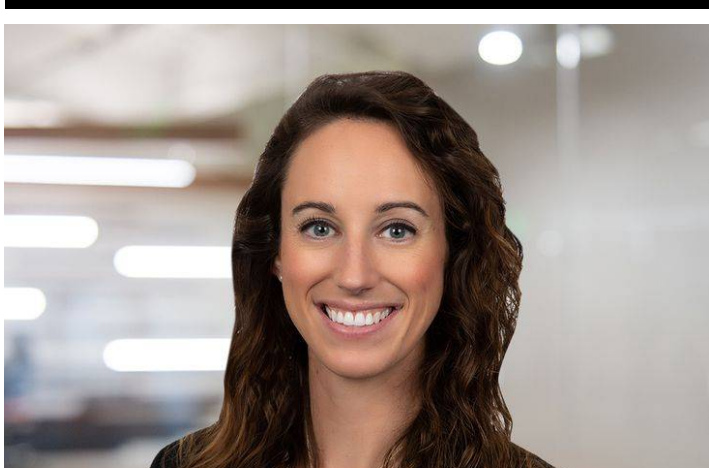

At Fisher Phillips, Kelly works alongside the firm’s employment practitioners, defending clients in employment litigation matters, as well as legal claims before the EEOC and DOL. Kelly also assists clients with day-to-day advices, supervisor training, employment agreements, and internal investigations.

Prior to joining Fisher Phillips, Kelly worked as a graduate assistant for the Legal Studies Department at the University of Mississippi. In law school she served as a staff editor for the Mississippi Sports Law Review and as a research editor for a textbook on Mississippi family law. While in law school, Kelly also worked as a circulation assistant at the University’s Grisham Law Library.

Kelly earned her law degree from the University of Mississippi School of Law, her master's degree in criminal justice from the University of Mississippi, and her undergraduate degree, cum laude, in sociology from Missouri State University.
