

San Francisco Managing Partner Comments on AB 5 Restraining Order

News

1.13.20

In the Overdrive article “For now, trucking remains exempt from Calif.’s restrictive contractor law,” San Francisco Regional Managing Partner Jason A. Geller offers commentary on a federal judge’s decision to indefinitely expand a temporary restraining order that exempts trucking from compliance with California’s AB 5 worker classification law. Jason expects that, based on the quick hearing schedule, the judge will rule within weeks whether to issue a permanent injunction.
