

Houston Partner Gives Podcast Interview About How Texas Employers Should Respond to COVID-19

News
3.27.20

Businesses all over the country have been heavily impacted by emergency public health measures, and many employers do not know how to navigate these quickly changing circumstances. In a podcast interview with the State Bar of Texas, Houston partner Teresa Valderrama offers guidance for employers as they navigate challenges arising from the COVID-19 pandemic. Throughout the interview, Teresa discusses what employers need to know about existing and newly enacted employment laws while providing valuable insights to help businesses through this unprecedented time.

To read the article, visit the Legal Talk Network.

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Teresa Valderrama
Partner
713.292.5616
Email

Related Offices

