

Kansas City Lawyer Discusses COVID-19 With Local News Station

News
3.30.20

In an interview with KMOV4, Samantha Monsees discusses the legal issues surrounding patient privacy and the public's right-to-know as it relates to COVID-19. In the televised interview, Samantha explains that if an employee tests positive for COVID-19, the employer is obligated to tell other workers but has no obligation to tell the public/customers. She also notes that if an employee "...has COVID and wants to let people know, they're certainly willing to do so...[b]ut there's no requirement that they do that."
