Jim McDonald, Managing Partner of Fisher Phillips' Irvine office, recently added Amazon Best-Selling Author to his bio as his book "California Employment Law: An Employer's Guide," became the #1 book under Labor Law on Amazon.com. Written especially for HR professionals and business people, "California Employment Law: An Employer's Guide" is the essential resource for avoiding the many perils and pitfalls California employers face.

The 2020 edition is updated to address new developments in California employment law, including the independent contractor test, harassment training requirements, the status of mandatory arbitration agreements, new rules on national original discrimination and clarifications on salary history inquiries, among many new laws that could trip up employers across the state.
