

Aaron Olsen Appointed Commissioner on the San Diego Civil Service Commission

News
5.15.20

Aaron Olsen, of counsel in Fisher Phillips' San Diego office, was recently appointed a commissioner on the San Diego Civil Service Commission. He was appointed by the Mayor and approved by the City Council to serve in this capacity. In the commissioner role, Aaron will serve for five years and will be responsible for developing and administering policies governing the classification, recruitment, selection, promotion, and removal of Classified employees of the City. Civil Service Commission Rules are formally adopted by the City Council and become law as part of the Municipal Code.
