MEMPHIS ATTORNEY, GREG GRISHAM, REAPPOINTED TO STATE'S ADVISORY COMMITTEE TO THE UNITED STATES COMMISSION ON CIVIL RIGHTS

News
May 15, 2020

Greg Grisham has been reappointed to Tennessee's State Advisory Committee to the United States Commission on Civil Rights ("the Commission"). Greg has served in this role since 2007, and he will begin his sixth term commencing in June 2020.

Tennessee's State Advisory Committee is composed of diverse volunteers who are familiar with local and state civil rights issues and represent a variety of backgrounds, skills, experiences and perspectives. Greg and his fellow committee members will help to promote civil rights in Tennessee by assisting the Commission in its fact-finding, investigative, and information dissemination functions.
