

Houston Partner Talks to News Station About COVID-19 Liability Waivers

News
6.16.20

With employees returning to work and companies reopening their doors to customers, employers are looking for ways to limit liability related to potential COVID-19 cases contracted in the workplace. To do so, many are considering waivers for not only their employees, but also for customers. In an interview with Fox26 Houston, Kevin Troutman discusses employers' use of COVID-19 waivers. In the end, Kevin said that he would "...not advise an employer to ask an employee to sign one of these waivers." He instead recommends that employers use their focus and energy on creating and maintaining a safe workplace.
