Jul 13, 2016

The article, "The Price of HR Compliance Goes Up Again!" featured in Omega HR Solutions, Inc., sheds light on the DOL's so called Interim Final Rule that will take effect on August 1, 2016.

Caroline Brown provided commentary on the increase of child labor violations.

Child labor violations have gone up, said Caroline. A standard child labor violation will now be $12,080 and a violation that results in a serious injury or death will be $54,910. If the violation were willful that will be doubled to $109,520. That is some serious money.
