

Louisville Lawyers Discuss Perfect Attendance Policies Amid the Pandemic

Publication

12.11.20

In a co-authored article published by the Kentucky Association of Manufacturers, George Adams and Paul Goatley discuss the issues that may arise with perfect attendance policies during the COVID-19 pandemic. The article raises legal considerations for employers to keep in mind pursuant to the Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA), and the authors also stress the need for employers to be generally more flexible with their perfect attendance policies during this unprecedented time.

To read the article, visit The Goods on the Kentucky Association of Manufacturers' website.

Related People

George D. Adams

Partner

502.561.3975

Email

Industry Focus

Manufacturing

Related Offices

