

Bargaining in the Time of COVID-19

Event

Webinar

12.09.20

9:00 am – 11:00 am PST

Whether you're an essential business trying to safely operate or a non-essential business trying to keep the lights on, the COVID-19 pandemic has raised a number of hurdles for unionized employers. Join Todd Lyon and Lisa Vickery for a two-hour labor relations program on how to how to bargain in good faith during this period of ongoing uncertainty. Attendees will learn how to respond to and manage high expectations while maintaining essential management rights. Further, through a series of hands on activities, attendees will leave with proactive suggestions on changing past practices and improvements in layoff and recall provisions before being faced with the full economic fallout of the post-COVID-19 economy.
