In this 6 month series, the Fisher Phillips Louisville attorneys will present virtually on trending labor and employment law topics affecting employers across the country in a post-pandemic era. This program is designed for HR managers, in-house counsel, safety managers and those who manage employees.

With several COVID-19 vaccines already being rolled out, now is the time to consider how to implement a successful vaccination policy. As vaccines become available, priority will likely go to health care workers and elderly and other at-risk individuals. This webinar will discuss vaccination policies and highlight how to handle employees who refuse and if an incentive program will work. Litigation as a result of COVID-19 has also been on the rise in the last few months. The Louisville attorneys will also discuss employment litigation trends that employers must be aware of and how you can be proactive.
