

New Denver Partner, Ed Hopkins, Talks to the Media About Joining Fisher Phillips

News
6.23.20

On June 22, 2020 the firm announced the addition of Edward Hopkins as a Partner in the firm's Denver office. In an interview with Law360, Ed discussed why he was drawn to Fisher Phillips and what he hopes to accomplish as part of the firm's Privacy and Cyber practice.

The article also describes Ed's background and certifications as well as his focus on diversity in the legal industry. He explained that "[a] firm that's committed to diversity has diversity in its leadership," and he described Fisher Phillips as having "diversity in its top ranks." He goes on to explain that diverse legal teams are what major corporations are looking for, and he adds that "[t]he firms who are taking the lead on that front...are going to attract more attention from the corporations who want to work with firms whose values match theirs."
