

Pittsburgh Partner Tapped for Insight on the Main Street Lending Program

News
7.03.20

In an interview with U.S. News & World Report, Patrick Dennison provides insight into the Main Street Lending program. He explains that these loans are best for companies "that may not necessarily be in financial dire straits, have a fairly good credit rating, but maybe the uncertainty of economic conditions going forward would increase their need for additional money." Later in the article, Patrick breaks down reporting requirements and how companies can apply for a Main Street Loan.
