

Los Angeles Managing Partner Tapped for Labor and Employment Roundtable Discussion

News
8.31.20

The Los Angeles Business Journal recently hosted a roundtable discussion focused on the top labor and employment trends in California and across the country. Todd Scherwin, managing partner of the firm's Los Angeles and Woodland Hills office, was one of three attorneys selected to participate in the high-level discussion. Throughout the conversation, Todd provides insight on the most significant new employment laws taking effect in 2020, how COVID-19 has impacted employment law, and how changes to marijuana and worker classification laws are impacting workplace policies.
