

Fisher Phillips Featured by Tampa Business Observer on COVID-19 Response and Client Service

News

10.02.20

In a feature article published by the Tampa Business Observer, Steve Bernstein and Christine Howard interview on how Fisher Phillips has adapted to the COVID-19 era when legal proceedings and client meetings have moved to Zoom and employers across Florida are facing new workplace challenges. Of the “new normal” Steve says “the workplace itself is becoming largely a virtual universe, even in industries that traditionally didn’t operate in that realm, and we have to be ready as a law firm to walk in the shoes of our clients.” Christine explains all of the resources the firm rolled out to assist clients with the current pandemic, including turning the firm’s homepage into a COVID-19 resource center and the launch of the COVID-19 Workplace Litigation Tracker.
