

Atlanta Media Reports on Jennifer Sandberg's Transition into Regional Managing Partner Role

News

10.12.20

In interviews with the Atlanta Business Chronicle and Daily Report, Jennifer Sandberg shares her goals as she takes on the Regional Managing Partner role of the Atlanta office, explains how the firm has responded to serve clients during the coronavirus pandemic and the importance of developing the next generation of leaders. Since Atlanta was the firm's first office in the U.S., Jennifer explains there are great opportunities for younger attorneys to learn from the wealth of knowledge and leadership sitting in Georgia. In her new role as Regional Managing Partner, she is excited to make those connections and continue to make every attorney and business professional feel the sense of belonging that she felt when she started with Fisher Phillips as a summer associate.
