

Denver Partner Reacts to Passage of Colorado's Paid Family and Medical Leave Ballot Initiative

News

11.04.20

In an interview with SHRM, Kristin White reacts to the passage of Colorado's ballot initiative establishing a statewide program for paid family and medical leave. Kristin explains that companies should be proactive and start preparing for the new law by creating a timeline for implementing the new payroll tax. She also adds that "[e]mployers will need to communicate this new policy to their employees and provide for procedures related to implementing this initiative."

To read the article, visit SHRM (subscription required).

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Kristin R.B. White
Partner
303.218.3658
Email

Service Focus

Employee Leaves and Accommodations

Related Offices

Denver