The Los Angeles Business Journal named Fisher Phillips in its 2020 "Most Admired Law Firms to Work For" highlighting the city's top law firms ranked for their company culture, employee compensation and benefits, diversity and women's initiatives, and work-life balance. Fisher Phillips was included in the prestigious list for its history of implementing policies that encourage attorneys to find the right work style that fits for them and for fostering a collegial atmosphere that seamlessly integrates over 450 attorneys across the country.

In Fisher Phillips' profile, the Los Angeles Business Journal points to the firm's expanded opportunities for attorneys to work together to solve clients' most pressing issues related to the current coronavirus pandemic. Opportunities to work on challenging, sophisticated and meaningful issues continues to be a draw for attorneys. The profile also highlights Fisher Phillips' professional development, mentoring and networking opportunities for attorneys and staff.
