WHAT FORMER OSHA ADMIN'S APPOINTMENT TO COVID-19 TASK FORCE MIGHT MEAN FOR EMPLOYERS

News
Dec 8, 2020

In an interview with Bloomberg Law, Ed Foulke discusses what David Michaels being named to President-elect Biden's transition team COVID-19 task force might signal for employers. The article explains that Michaels has been a vocal proponent of creating an emergency temporary standard and a permanent infectious disease standard. Ed weighs in on these things and notes that he is "anticipating that under Michaels we'll see all of this fairly quickly."
