

Cleveland Lawyer Discusses His Charitable Work Across the Globe

News

12.11.20

In an interview with Super Lawyers, Richard Millisor discusses his charitable work with Sanyuka Children Ministries. Richard explains how the ministry has helped over 60 orphans in Kampala, Uganda in its mission of empowering children through education. He also explains how much his work with the ministry has meant to him, and he said “I’ve been blessed, in the years I’ve been fortunate to support the ministry, to see how children gain security and confidence, such that many are now serving others in the community.”
