

Partner Talks to Bloomberg Law About Potential Legislation Targeting COVID-19 Vaccine Mandates

News

12.24.20

Legislation that would ban or limit vaccine mandates has been pre-filed for 2021 sessions in several states, and in an interview with Bloomberg Law, Kevin Troutman discusses what this might mean for employers' COVID-19 vaccination plans. Kevin explains that if state lawmakers sense there's widespread reluctance to taking the Covid-19 vaccine, that could motivate broader support in state legislatures for bills that ban mandates. On the other hand, and given the death toll from the pandemic, Kevin wonders if state legislatures are really going to stand in the way of employers vaccinating their workforces.
