Katniss Everdeen's bow and arrow will not help employers on April 1st, 2014 when the competition for H-1B work visas begins, Shanon wrote.

On April 1, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services ("USCIS") begins accepting H-1B petitions for foreign workers in professional or specialty occupation jobs to fill the 65,000 available slots for applicants who hold a bachelor's degree or the equivalent and the 20,000 available slots for applicants who hold a U.S. master's degree or higher, she explained.
