Rick Grimaldi and Lori Armstrong Halber created an article entitled “Philadelphia: The Future Is In Our Grasp” for Region’s Business.

In the course of the next two plus years, the Philadelphia area will see a gubernatorial election, a mayoral election, congressional elections, and a Presidential election. Each will have an impact on the future of the region and should be viewed as an opportunity for great positive change and a chance to realize the vision of the region as an international hub of commerce. From our perspective, it all starts and ends with the development of an economic engine that creates and ensures good jobs that attract and retain the best talent.
