It's no secret that Halloween celebrations in the workplace have grown substantially over the last decade. In a recent USA Today poll, Halloween has been deemed one of the most celebrated holidays with more than 54 million adults planning on participating in a Halloween party and over $2 billion being spent on costumes.

In the article, Shayna provide employers with tips on how to keep the ghost and goblins from getting the best of their celebration:

- Keep the costumes in check.
- Beware of scary emails.
- Provide alternatives.
- Mind the beer cart.
- Be prepared to enforce and discipline.
