

Law360 Taps Fisher Phillips Partner for Insight Into OFCCP Leader's Priority List

News
1.21.21

In an interview with Law360, Cheryl Behymer shares insight on what Jenny Yang, the new leader of the DOL's Office of Federal Contract Compliance Programs, may focus on during her tenure. Cheryl suggests that Yang may focus heavily on pay discrimination by requiring employer to submit pay data as a part of mandated annual surveys. She notes that these efforts could be complicated by California's recently instated SB 973, which imposes new state-level pay data reporting requirements for employers.

To read the article visit Law360 (subscription required).

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Cheryl L. Behymer
Partner
803.255.0000
Email

Service Focus

Affirmative Action and Federal Contract Compliance
Pay Equity