

Columbus Partner Participates in Podcast About Vaccinations in the Workplace

News

12.09.20

On the WealthAbility podcast, Bob Robenalt discusses the various issues employers may face with the rollout of the COVID-19 vaccination in workplaces across the country. During the interview, Bob weighs-in on whether employers can – and should – mandate the COVID-19 vaccine for their employees. He explains the legal considerations that employers must keep in mind when making this type of decision, and he also touches on the idea of employers offering up incentives to encourage their employees to get vaccinated. The interview goes on to address various other aspects of the vaccine rollout, including employer liability, workers' compensation, and getting buy-in from senior management.
