

Atlanta's New Leaders Navigate the Unexpected

News

12.29.20

In an article published by The Daily Report, Jennifer Sandberg was named among the newly tapped local managing partners and interviewed on how they navigated an unprecedented year. Jennifer explains that keeping young talent in the fold amid the remote environment has been one of her top priorities. “I’m making sure people are communicating, getting the support they need – and that they understand that we are committed to work from home as long as it makes sense,” she says. Jennifer added that the firm is committed to investing in young talent and will make sure they aren’t overlooked by people who are more senior.
