

Wage and Hour Co-Chair Tapped by Law360 for Intel on Top Developments to Watch in 2021

News

1.03.21

Law360 featured comments from Kathleen Caminiti, co-chair of Fisher Phillips' Wage and Hour practice, in their article on the top wage and hour developments to watch in 2021. The article touches on several Trump administration regulations that may be overturned under the Biden administration, minimum wage increases and continued remote work issues. Kathie says that issues related to telecommuting leave policies, timekeeping practices and other issues like reimbursements requirements will exist long after the pandemic is over. She advises employers to establish policies and procedures around remote work to mitigate the risk of litigation.
