

Law Week Colorado Interviews Denver Partner About Remote Work Beyond the Pandemic

News
2.26.21

In an interview with Law Week Colorado, Kristin White discusses how a majority of the state's employers plan to let their employees work from home after pandemic restrictions are lifted. Many of these employers are now seeking advice on implementing permanent remote work arrangements, and Kristin is encouraging them to think about establishing a comprehensive work-from-home or telework policy to define expectations around work hours, breaks and overtime, productivity, use of technology, data privacy and cybersecurity.
