MANAGING MARCH MADNESS IN CALIFORNIA – OFFICE POOLS, ALCOHOL, MARIJUANA, E-CIGARETTES, PIERCINGS AND OTHER MADDENING BEHAVIOR

Event

Mar 1, 2021

10:00 – 11:00 AM PST

March Madness captures the attention of millions of fans every year, but it also brings potential liability for employers. Betting pools at work are very common and a decrease in efficiency is unsurprising. Many employers turn a blind eye towards these pools, figuring that they help to maintain morale and build camaraderie. Fisher Phillips attorney, Alexa Hanlon will discuss the legal exposure an employer may face with inter-office betting, and how an employer can avoid a loss of productivity. We will also discuss several other “bad” behavior from alcohol, tattoos, piercings and how to address the changing laws regarding marijuana and e-cigarettes.
