

Insights, News & Events

MAINTAINING PATIENT PRIVACY IN THE DIGITAL AGE

Publication
May 17, 2016

In the article, "Maintaining Patient Privacy in the Digital Age," featured in New Orleans City Business, Jaklyn Wrigley discusses why companies should rethink blanket bans on recording devices in the workplace, in light of a recent opinion by the National Labor Relations Board.

To read the full article, please visit New Orleans City Business [subscription required].