MEGAN WALKER NAMED C. HUGH FRIEDMAN NEW LAWYER AWARD RECIPIENT BY LAWYERS CLUB OF SAN DIEGO

News
Apr 1, 2021

Megan Walker, an associate in Fisher Phillips' San Diego office, was recently named The C. Hugh Friedman New Lawyer Award Recipient by the Lawyers Club of San Diego. The C. Hugh Friedman New Lawyer Award recognizes members in practice seven years or less who are dedicated to excellence in the practice of law and a deep commitment to community service and gender equality. Announced in the April 2021 edition of the Lawyers Club of San Diego newsletter, Megan is profiled for her success in private practice and her exemplary leadership within the legal community. She has held multiple leadership positions within the Lawyers Club and, most prominently, led the Human Trafficking Collaborative in its efforts to end human trafficking and to provide resources for survivors. Megan continues to address and combat human trafficking by encouraging legal and community support, participating in policy advocacy, and supporting organizations.

Megan will be awarded the C. Hugh Friedman New Lawyer Award at the Lawyers Club Annual Dinner on May 6, 2021. To learn more about the C. Hugh Friedman New Lawyer Award and Megan's achievements, visit Lawyers Club of San Diego (see page 17).
