

You Were Not Selected for the H-1B Lottery – Now What?

Event

4.27.21

1:00 – 2:00 p.m. EDT / 10:00 – 11:00 a.m. PDT

The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services' H-1B visa program permits United States employers to hire foreign professionals in the U.S. for up to six years, and in certain circumstances, sometimes longer. This program is an invaluable means for employers seeking to complement their U.S. workforces with key foreign talent. Unfortunately, the demand for visas far exceeds the annual quota of approximately 85,000. The odds of being selected in the H-1B cap lottery have decreased over the past few years as the number of applicants continues to increase, while the number of available H-1B visas has remained constant.

So what options remain for employers looking to acquire and retain valuable foreign national employees when not selected in the H-1B lottery? During this complimentary webinar, immigration partners Jocelyn Campanaro and Angelica Ochoa will examine the various alternative options and strategies for employers to consider, as well as discuss the importance of advanced workforce planning when hiring and employing foreign nationals.

Pending approval for HRCI and SHRM credit.
