

Sticking Points: Legal + Practical Implications of Mandating, Encouraging or Incentivizing COVID-19 Vaccinations in Your Workplace

ASSOCIATION OF CORPORATE COUNSEL NORTHEAST OHIO

Event

3.11.21

12:00 PM — 1:30 PM EDT

With the COVID-19 vaccine finally here, many employers are justifiably eager to have their employees vaccinated. This seminar will provide guidance and facilitate legal and practical discussions to navigate employment-related issues created by the good news of the increasing availability of vaccinations, including:

- Legal considerations relating to mandating, facilitating or encouraging vaccinations, such as:
 - Industry-related considerations
 - Obtaining employee buy-in for vaccinations, including discussion of “incentives”
 - Prohibitions and considerations relating to ADA compliance, Title VII protections for religious practices, and pre-screening questions
 - Requiring proof of vaccination and confidentiality
 - OSHA compliance and Safety program
- Analytics and benchmarking trends among employers
