

Healthcare Co-Chair Interviews with Bloomberg Law on Vaccine Passports

News

4.12.21

In an interview with Bloomberg Law, Kevin Troutman provides his thoughts on executive orders and state legislative bills that appear to bar workplace vaccine mandates. Policymakers and employers are weighing the pros and cons of vaccine mandates and passports, and Kevin explains that it may be difficult to predict what state lawmakers ultimately will decide on the pending proposals. He notes there have been reports about concerns of New Yorkers trying to falsify their vaccine passports in the state's new system, and if concerns about the reliability or security of vaccine passports becomes more widespread, then these issues could drive politicians to take more substantive action against such mandates.
