

Fisher Phillips Partner Named President-Elect of South Carolina Bar

News

5.12.21

Hagood Tighe, Columbia-based partner at Fisher Phillips and co-chair of the firm's Wage and Hour practice group, was recently named President-Elect of the South Carolina Bar. In this role, Hagood will further the Bar's mission to serve over 17,000 members and the public by advancing the legal profession through high quality education, continuous innovation and facilitating improvements in the administration of justice. He will assume the role of President of the South Carolina Bar in May 2022. Hagood has been an active member of the South Carolina Bar throughout his legal career, including serving as Chair of the Employment and Labor Law Section, Chair of the Conventions Committee, Chair of the CLE Committee, Chair of the Bar's House of Delegates, and most recently, Treasurer and Board of Governors Member.
