

Employment Issues Arising from Mergers & Acquisitions

Event

6.23.21

12:00 PM — 1:00 PM EDT

Join Fisher Phillips attorneys, Michael Marra and Brett Owens for a webinar centered on key labor and employment issues that deserve significant attention when your organization is merging with or acquiring another company.

We will provide attendees a better understanding of what areas might deserve extra scrutiny during the due diligence process, creating a greater likelihood of a more meaningful transactional payoff—in terms of evaluating and pricing deals, and building in protections and practical solutions.

This discussion will also focus on potential liabilities in the areas of trade secrets, restrictive covenants, wage and hour law, equal employment opportunity, immigration, workplace safety, labor, and employee relations. We will also focus on common issues that emerge in litigation following a completed transaction.

If you have any questions, please contact Elizabeth Hickman.
