

Workplace Safety Partner Provides Media with Initial Reaction to OSHA's Emergency Temporary Standard

News

6.10.21

In an interview with Government Executive, Patrick Dennison provides his initial reaction to the much-anticipated Emergency Temporary Standard (ETS), which provides workplace safety guidance directed at healthcare employers dealing with COVID-19. Patrick explains that “there were no major surprises” as “many of the requirements [of the ETS] were included in COVID-19 standards already implemented in states like California and Virginia.”

To read the article visit Government Executive.

Please reach out to our Media team for any news inquiries.

Related People

Patrick W. Dennison
Partner
412.822.6627
Email

Service Focus

Workplace Safety and Catastrophe Management

Related Offices

Pittsburgh