

2021 Mid-Year Employment Law Update: Shifting Priorities in a New Climate

CO-HOSTED WITH CISIVE

Event

6.23.21

1:00 PM — 2:00 PM CDT

2020 was a year like no other. Through significant challenges and evolving regulatory expectations, employers summoned knowledge and resources while looking squarely ahead on the road to recovery. 2021 has continued to present new and evolving challenges in employment law. Join Fisher Phillips' Houston attorneys Kevin Troutman and Mauro Ramirez to review employment law developments and discuss the emerging legal issues to anticipate for the remainder of 2021.

Topics to be covered include:

- Best practices for employers on re-opening the workplace
- Considerations regarding vaccine programs and mandates
- Potential developments and changes under the new Biden Administration
- The ongoing and new initiatives and priorities for administrative agencies
- Navigating political and social events impact on the workplace

This program has been approved for HRCI/SHRM credit.
