Charles Caulkins's article, "Quartet of Momentous Labor Board Decisions Spells New Day for Employers Everywhere," was featured in the Daily Business Review. The National Labor Relations Board issued four major decisions that will impact workplace law. After eight years of a pro-union labor board, employers are happy to know that balance is being restored to labor and employment law.

Charles discusses the following decisions:

- Joint Employment Doctrine
- Reasonable Workplace Rules
- Micro-units
- Expiration of Union Contracts
