

Phillip Bauknight Discusses Cryptocurrency and Blockchain Taskforce Launch

News
7.15.21

In an article published in NJBIZ, Phillip Bauknight talks about the firm’s innovative new task force to help clients with labor and employment issues arising from cryptocurrency and blockchain technologies. “Cryptocurrency and blockchain technologies are radically altering the way many companies do business, with the pace of change increasing exponentially by the day,” Phil notes. “While these revolutionary and disruptive technologies are being adopted at a rapid pace, a key area where these technologies have been overlooked is how they can impact the workplace.”
