

Fourth Thursday Advanced HR Webinar Series: Fisher Phillips Has the Cure For Top Five Supervisor-Created Headaches

Event

8.26.21

2:00 PM — 2:30 PM CDT

Supervisors aren't perfect and their bandwidth for Human Resources issues can be limited. They want to make the best decisions for the business, but often stumble in ensuring that those decisions are executed properly and that procedures are followed. Despite our best efforts at training, they will often face situations they do not have the knowledge to manage. In this session we will discuss five common scenarios Human resources professionals are called in to remedy. These run from not recognizing FMLA leave to not properly documenting poor performance. The focus will be on how to minimize risk while still making the best business decision.
