

Fisher Phillips Breakfast Briefing: What New Jersey's Legalization of Marijuana Means for the Workplace

Event

9.14.21

9:00 AM — 10:00 AM EDT

Fisher Phillips explains how New Jersey's new marijuana law may impact your workplace policies. As it's written, the legislation leaves more questions than answers for employers. Case in point: How will the newly created marijuana expert affect an employer's ability to investigate marijuana use and make employment law determinations? New Jersey attorneys Katherine DiCicco and Alyssa Musmanno will detail the new law and outline steps employers should take for compliance.

This course has been submitted for HRCI/SHRM and CLE in New Jersey.
