Overview
Nick Anhold defends businesses in a wide range of employment-related disputes.

Before joining Fisher Phillips, Nick focused on complex business, employment, and professional liability disputes, and advised attorneys in disciplinary and grievance proceedings, at a Cleveland-based litigation firm. He has extensive experience in briefing and oral argument and has achieved successful results in mediation.

While in law school, Nick clerked for the Hon. K.J. Montgomery of the Shaker Heights Municipal Court and served as Editor-in-Chief of the Global Business Law Review.
