FISHER PHILLIPS ATTORNEYS AUTHOR ARTICLE FOR LAW360 ON NEW YORK'S NEW RIDE-SHARING REGULATIONS

Publication
Sep 5, 2018

Attorneys Rich Meneghello and Melissa Osipoff authored an article for Law360 to help attorneys understand New York's new regulations for riding-sharing companies. In the article, the attorneys make the case that the new wage requirements and license caps could stymie gig economy growth in the region and have the potential to serve as a model for other areas of the country – and may not necessarily be limited to ride-sharing businesses.
