

Memphis Regional Managing Partner Discusses Immigration-Related Hiring Risks

Publication

10.29.18

Over the past two years, numerous programs granting work authorization to foreign nationals have been targeted for rescission, including the Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) program. In an authored article for Memphis Lawyer Magazine, David Jones outlines recent decisions based on Section 1981 claims that may make the immigration status versus national origin question irrelevant.

To read the full article, visit Memphis Lawyer Magazine.

Related People

David S. Jones
Regional Managing Partner
901.526.0431
Email

Related Offices

Memphis